AMENDED ORDER TERMINATING
MANDATORY EVACUATION ORDER

I, Ronald L. Walker, duly elected Judge of Jefferson County, pursuant to the Disaster Declaration of September 8, 2008, and which was extended September 15, 2008 and the authority granted me by Sec. 418.108 (f), do hereby order that the mandatory evacuation previously ordered for Jefferson County is hereby terminated at 6:00 a.m., September 20, 2008 except as to all special needs persons who were evacuated.

Those persons who were part of the population that were evacuated by means of transportation other than private vehicle and who were in the category of special needs persons are still subject to the mandatory evacuation order. Those persons would include all evacuees who were transported by bus, ambulance or other state provided transportation and who were considered as being part of medical special needs or other special needs. The mandatory evacuation order remains in full force and effect with respect to such persons until further order of this Court.
