IN THE DISTRICT COURTS OF

JEFFERSON COUNTY, TEXAS

GENERAL ORDER NO. 3

The undersigned have taken judicial notice of the number of filings of breach of contract, insurance coverage and claims handling cases seeking relief from insurers, claims handlers, adjusters and adjusting firms involving damages caused by Hurricane Ike in the Courts of Jefferson County. On this day, the undersigned were notified of the progress in completing a proposed Case Management Order and are of the opinion and additional two weeks should be added to the abatement of discovery in these cases that is laid out in General Order No. 2, dated April 15, 2009. Accordingly it is ORDERED that the April 15, 2009 abatement in General Order No. 2 is extended by an additional 2 weeks, or until a Case Management Order addressing those deadlines has been entered by the District Judges of this County. All other provisions of General Order No. 2 remain in effect.

SIGNED this 8th day of June, 2009.
