

REGION 5

NECHES REGIONAL FLOOD PLANNING GROUP

Join us for the Neches Regional Flood Planning
Existing Flood Risk Public Comment Meeting!

Tuesday, January 11, 2022
5:30 - 7:30 PM

Lamar University Center for Innovation,
Commercialization and Entrepreneurship (CICE)
Training Room 113

5091 Rolfe Christopher Dr.
Beaumont, Texas 77710

The public is invited to attend the open house style meeting where representatives will be on hand to discuss the first-ever State Flood Plan and receive input from the public. The meeting will display the existing flood risk conditions for the Neches Flood Planning Region and will allow the public to provide comment on flood prone areas to be included as part of the Neches Regional Flood Plan.
