

TEXAS CITIZEN PLANNER PROGRAM

Do your LOCAL OFFICIALS know how
Planning and Hazard Mitigation connect?

City officials and staff are confronted every day with decisions that will impact their communities.
Give them the knowledge to shape community development for the better.

The program addresses the connections between good planning, hazard mitigation, and environmental stewardship that every local official needs to know.

Planning topics and trends for a positive community vision and quality of life.
How to use planning tools to improve development.
Best practices for hazard mitigation and technical aspects of planning tools.
